Trist's Mention.
 High water to-day at 9:07 a. m.
 Buy a new house—R. E. Baldwin.

If you want a new wringer or one repaired, call on the manufacturers, the American Wringer Company, 499 State street.

Mr. Clarence Deming has rented Mrs. Dr. Deming's house in Litchfield for the season.

Champion's French Ice Cream, made from pure cream and delivered to all parts of the city.

East Rock lodge had an interesting meeting last evening and the proposed excursion was talked over.

Mrs. Charles H. Platt and son of this city are at the United States hotel, Litchfield, to remain some time.

New Haven lodge, Three Sons of Israel, will hold a Jollification meeting next Sunday evening in their hall in the "Courtier" building. The grand officers of the district of New York will be present.

"Mrs. Billings' Companion," the joint play of Charles Wyllie and Miss Barney, will be played in the West Haven town hall this evening for the benefit of the Housatonic Summer Home for Working Girls.

The Southern New England Telephone company have begun to place instruments for about thirty-five new subscribers in Bristol. The outside circuits are nearly completed and the whole system is expected to be in use by July 1.

The annual donation day of Grace hospital will occur to-day. The public are most cordially invited to attend. A committee of ladies will receive the guests on the pleasant lawn of the hospital, where light refreshments will be served. All donations will be gratefully received.

The concert given by the Columbia band of Whitteville last night in "The Pines" drew quite a large throng. "The Pines" are situated on the banks of Lake Whitney at the end of the electric road and are very prettily laid out. Mr. E. H. Moulton, who has an ice cream and confectionery stand, gave the concert.

John Roche was arrested last night by Special Officer Cohn and locked up, charged with the theft of a quantity of stone mason's tools from Lawrence O'Brien, who is doing the stone mason work at the Phelps building in the campus. Roche told the tools in Oak street where they were found by Officer John Gilligan.

A concert will be given at St. Andrew's M. E. church, Four Corners, annex, this, Thursday, evening by the Mendelssohn quartet, Messrs. Maurer, Uran, Hunle, Williams, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Young. Miss Lottie Jennings, soloist; Mr. Williams, tenor soloist; Miss Irene Evans, elocutionist. The affair is for the benefit of the Sunday school library, and is under the supervision of Mrs. A. Westbrook Baldwin. Mrs. Carrie Hitchcock will be pianist.

Death of Dr. A. H. Fagan.
 Middletown, June 19.—Dr. A. H. Fagan, the oldest doctor in the city, died last evening. He was seventy-four years old.

Dr. Buckley Improving.
 Stamford, June 19.—Dr. Buckley, who was injured by a kick from a horse a week ago, is recovering. The physician will be removed to the home of his parents in Branford.

In Woodmont.
 The new road which cuts off the distance from the station to Merwin's Point is being taken already by new residents. Bryan avenue, as it is called, has now two new houses, the latest is being put up by Mr. William H. Merwin of Temple street, New Haven.

Keough's Hotel Attached.
 Cheshire, June 19.—An attachment was placed on Keough's hotel here this afternoon in the interest of E. Sterns & Co., liquor dealers of New York, who supplied the hotel with goods.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL

At the Humphrey Street Congregational Church.

The strawberry festival given for the benefit of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Humphrey street Congregational church parlors last evening was attended by a large crowd. Tables were laid for the serving of cream and cake. The waitresses were kept busy serving during the evening. Mrs. Hattie Anderson was in charge of the waitresses, who were the Misses Christine and Helen Curtis, Miss Frances Lambert, Miss Ellis Pomeroy and Miss Carrie McIntyre.

A pretty booth decorated with wild flowers and with a huge imitation of a berry grab bag hung in the center. The bag was made by James F. Parsons, and was filled with articles. A small fee was charged for a grab therein. Miss Alta Carter was in charge. A table containing fancy articles, candy, cake and flowers was in charge of Miss Clara Wilcox and Miss Sue Price. To-night a social will be given for the Junior Endeavor of the church. There will be games for prizes and refreshments will be served. Mrs. L. A. Emmerich is superintendent of the Endeavor.

What Jewelers Know About Sterling Silver.

The fact is, that twelve of the largest dry goods stores in New York have been indicted for selling bogus Sterling silver should be a fair warning to the New Haven public to buy their goods from a reliable old established house like SILVERTHAU & SONS, 790 Chapel street, who have spent 40 years handling gold and silver, and their prices are the lowest that honest goods can be sold for. Diamonds and Wedding Gifts are their specialties. We know nothing about dry goods, but it is easy to see
